UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

JAMESON HATTEN, Clerk
BLW
Deputy Clerk

ANDREW S. MACKAY
Defendant

1:10-cr-0310 WSD

MOTION TO EXPEDITE THE APPEAL

COMES Now, Andrew S. Mackay, defendant herein, Pro Se and respectfully files this Motion to Expedite The Appeal, to grant him expedited relief, in this matter and shows the following.

CIRCUMSTANCE

Defendant Mackay has a co-defendant which is his wife defendant Jensen.

Defendant Jensen's mother (defendant

Mackay's mother-in-law) passed away on Monday July 23, 2012. Defendant Jensen

after being convicted after trial was Sent home to take care of all the Children and Grandchildren. Defendant Mackey need to be home so that his wife defendant Jensen can have the support that she need mentally, emotionally, and physically and spiritually that only a spouse can give. Defendant Jensen need to make arrangements for her mother and to be able to mourn at a time that she can barely take care of herself, more less a house full of children and grandchildren. Defendant respectfully moves this court to EXPEDITE MOTION TO APPEAL.

Respectfully
Andrew S Mackey Prose
